

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL.

OFFICE OF FACTORY INSPECTORS,

PROVIDENCE, R. I., January 7th, 1905.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY GEORGE H. UTTER,

Governor State Rhode Island:

In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 68 of the General Laws, we have the honor to submit to you, and through you to the General Assembly, this the eleventh annual report of the Factory Inspectors of this State, covering the inspection of factories, workshops, and mercantile establishments during the year ending December 31, 1904.

Respectfully submitted,

J. ELLERY HUDSON,
HELEN M. JENKS,

Factory Inspectors.

REPORT.

---

The State Factory Inspectors respectfully present the following as their eleventh annual report:

During the year ending December 31st, 1904, we have visited and found in operation six hundred and fifty-three (653) establishments coming under the provisions of Chapter 68 of the General Laws.

The number of employees in the various establishments was divided as follows:

Males of sixteen years and over.....	52,072
Females of sixteen years and over.....	36,473
<hr/>
Total adults.....	88,545
Males under sixteen years of age.....	3,142
Females under sixteen years of age.....	2,753
<hr/>
Whole number of children.....	5,895
Total number employed.....	94,440

A comparison of these figures with those reported last year shows a decrease of one thousand seven hundred and thirty-eight (1,738) in the number of men employed; an increase of one hundred and eighteen (118) in the number of women employed; a decrease of two hundred and nineteen (219) in the number of boys employed; and a decrease of three hundred and thirty-seven (337) in the number of girls employed; a net decrease of one thousand six hundred and twenty (1,620) in the number of adults employed; a decrease of five hundred and fifty-six (556) in the number of children employed; and a total decrease of two thousand one hundred and seventy-six (2,176) in the whole number employed. The percentage of children employed is 6.2, as against 6.7 last year.

We would again call your attention to the weakness of our laws as regards the employment of children. The factory law permits the employment of children of twelve years of age. In the truant law (under which the factory inspector has no jurisdiction) the age is fixed at thirteen, but the only qualification required of children by that law is that they shall have attained the age of thirteen years, at which time, be they physically strong or weak, or ignorant to the extent of not knowing even the letters of the alphabet, they are permitted to engage in permanent employment. It is also possible that they be employed all night five nights in the week. The present factory law includes under its provisions only such establishments as employ five women and children, and it is therefore possible, and we believe true, that many children are employed singly and by twos and threes in places not coming under our supervision, and that, too, under conditions less favorable to their well-being than any prevailing in establishments already within the scope of the factory law. We would therefore renew and ask your careful consideration of the following recommendations which were offered in our report one year ago:

That no child who has not completed thirteen years of life be employed, permitted, or suffered to work in any factory, manufacturing or business establishment in this State;

That any person, firm, or corporation employing as many as five persons, or any child who has not completed sixteen years of life, be deemed a factory, manufacturing or business establishment, within the meaning of the factory law;

That no child who has not completed sixteen years of life be permitted to work in any factory, manufacturing or business establishment, after 8 o'clock P. M. on any day. We believe that the greater part of the injury to the health of children employed is the result of night work;

That no person, firm, or corporation be permitted to employ any child who has not completed sixteen years of life without a certificate from the school authorities attesting that such child has passed some stated grade of instruction taught in our schools, and that all certificates relating to the age and qualifications of children employed be placed at the call of the factory inspectors.

The following table shows the number of adults and children employed in the State, by counties, cities, and towns:

cloths and yarns, silk goods, threads, tapes, braids, and twines. A comparison of the figures given with those in last year's report will show a decrease of one thousand five hundred and forty-six (1,546) in the number of adults employed, and a decrease of four hundred and seventy-one (471) in the number of children employed in the textile industries of the State.

We are pleased to report a continued improvement in the sanitary arrangements and conditions in the various factories of the State.

Sixty accidents have been reported during the year, only one of which was fatal.

"Sec. 16. All hoistway and elevator openings through floors where there is no shaft shall be protected by sufficient railings, gates, trap-doors, or other mechanical devices equivalent thereto, and the same shall be kept closed in the night time or when not in use. Every passenger elevator, except plunger elevators, shall be provided with some safety arrangement to prevent falling, and every passenger elevator shall be fitted with some suitable device to prevent the elevator car from being started until the door or doors opening into the elevator shaft are closed; and no person under the age of eighteen years shall take charge of or operate any passenger elevator.

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 64 of the General Laws is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Provided, that if the person so charged shall prove or shall present a certificate, made by or under the direction of the school committee of the city or town wherein he resides, setting forth that the child has already completed the elementary studies above mentioned; or that the child has attended for the required period of time a private day school, or upon private instruction, approved by the school committee of the city or town where said private school was located or said private instruction was given; or that the physical or mental condition of the child was such as to render his attendance at school inexpedient or impracticable; or that the child, being over 12 years of age, has been excused in order to be employed, by authority of the school committee upon the written recommendation of the overseer of the poor stating that the child's wages are necessary for the support of the family, and also upon the written recommendation of the truant officers; or that the child was destitute of clothing suitable for attending school and that the person having control of said child was unable to provide suitable clothing; or that the child was excluded from school by virtue of some general law or regulation—then such attendance shall not be obligatory nor shall such penalty be incurred: but nothing in this section shall be construed to allow the absence or irregular attendance of any child who is enrolled as a member of any school, or of any child sent to school by the person having control of such child.

"SEC. 2. For the purposes of this chapter the school committee shall approve a private school or private instruction only when they are satisfied that the period of attendance of the pupils in such school or upon such instruction is substantially equal to that required by law of a child attending a public school in the same city or town; that the teaching in such school or such instruction in all studies except foreign languages, and any studies not taught in the public schools, is in the English language; that such teaching or instruction is thorough and efficient; and that registers are kept and returns to the school committee and truant officers in relation to the attendance of pupils are made the same as by the public schools.

The school committee of two or more cities or towns may appoint the same truant officer or officers, and any school committee that appoints teachers or other employees on a different tenure of office than annual appointments may appoint truant officers on a similar tenure in lieu of the annual appointment above mentioned in this section and may fix their compensation from time to time. The tenure of office or compensation of any truant officer in office in any city or town when this act takes effect shall not be abrogated by any of its provisions, but every such officer and compensation shall be continued and he shall thereupon become a truant officer under
